Roger the Dodger, whose real name is Roger Dawson, is a fictional character featured regularly in the UK comic The Beano. His strip consists solely of Roger's basic remit to avoid doing chores and homework which usually involves him concocting complex and ultimately disastrous plans, the undoing of which results in him being punished (usually by his long-suffering father). To perform these tasks he enlists the help of his many 'dodge books'.

He first appeared in issue 561, dated 18 April 1953.
His appearance is vaguely similar to that of Dennis the Menace; he wears a black-and-red chequered jumper, black trousers and takes better care of his hair than his equally mischievous counterpart. He also used to have a white tie, but it seems to have disappeared. Originally drawn by Ken Reid, Gordon Bell took over in 1959, but Roger dodged his way out of the Beano in 1960. He returned, drawn by Bob McGrath, in April 1961. Ken Reid was re-commissioned to draw the strip in 1962, and Robert Nixon when Reid left DC Thomson in 1964. When Nixon left in 1973, Tom Lavery began drawing the strip, who was then followed by Frank McDiarmid in 1976.

Ten years later, after Euan Kerr took over as Beano editor, Nixon returned, drawing in a noticeably different style from the one before. Roger's strip was given a second page in 1986. Between 1986 and 1992, a spin-off strip appeared at the end called Roger the Dodger's Dodge Clinic. Readers would write in with problems, and Roger would try to find a dodge for it (which would usually go wrong). Winning suggestions would win a transistor radio and special scroll. Roger is often shown in other Beano characters' stories offering "help", which he took to a new level in Beano issue 2648 from April 1993. This issue marked Roger's 40th birthday, and to celebrate he made appearances in every strip in the comic.

Roger, unlike most Beano characters, does not go out of his way to cause chaos and mayhem. Instead, he chooses to watch from the sidelines, dodging responsibilities and punishments.

TO BE A SUCCESSFUL DODGER YOU HAVE TO BE GOOD AT FIGURES.

FOR INSTANCE — AHEM! — I'M SUPPOSED TO CUT THE LAWN EVERY FOURTEEN DAYS. IT WAS LAST DONE ON THE 28TH OF MAY AND THIS IS THE 18TH OF JUNE. THEREFORE I'VE DODGED CUTTING IT FOR SEVEN DAYS ALREADY! RIGHT?

AND THAT ADDS UP TO DAD COMING HOME TONIGHT AND YELLING — "ROGER! GET THAT LAWN CUT, OR ELSE!"

SO I'VE BROUGHT YOUNG COUSIN WILLIE TO PLAY IN OUR GARDEN FOR A WHILE. HERE, WILLIE! — PLAY WITH MY "JUNIOR MECHANIC'S OUTFIT" AND YOU CAN TRY IT OUT ON....

COO!

JUNIOR MECHANIC'S OUTFIT

THAT NIGHT —

ROGER! GET THAT LAWN CUT, OR ELSE!

WHAT DID I TELL YOU?

FUNNY YOU SHOULD SAY THAT, DAD. THAT'S JUST WHAT I CAME OUT HERE TO DO, BUT LOOK AT THE MOWER!

AGH-H! GOOD GRIEF!

GASP! GRUNT! PUFF!

CRASH! BANG!

THEN, THE UNEXPECTED HAPPENS —

TAKE THIS LOT TO THE REPAIR-SHOP RIGHT THIS MINUTE!

ERK!

RATTLE! CLASH! CLANG!

BUT HALF WAY DOWN THE STREET —

PHEW! A HORSE AND CART! JUST WHAT I NEED FOR DODGE No 63B.

HERE'S WHERE FIGURES PLAY THEIR PART AGAIN, PALS. THIS CART IS GOING AT 3 MILES PER HOUR IT WILL PASS THE REPAIRER'S SHOP — ONE MILE AWAY — IN 20 MINUTES. TAKING THE SHORT-CUT THROUGH THE PARK, I WILL COVER 1/4 OF A MILE — AT 1 MILE PER HOUR —

— IN 15 MINUTES! SO, IF I DUMP THE MOWER ON THE CART, THEN TAKE A NICE EASY, STROLL THROUGH THE PARK, I SHOULD MEET THE CART ON THE OTHER SIDE NEAR THE REPAIRER'S. RIGHT?

HALF AN HOUR LATER —

TEE-TUM-TI-TEE — AH! HERE IT COMES — 10 MINUTES LATE! NOW I WONDER WHY?

STILL, MY DODGE SAVED ME CARRYING THAT HEAVY LAWN MOWER ALL THIS WAY.

BUT AS THE CART TRUNDLES BY —

YOWLK! I-IT'S EMPTY!

HEY, MISTER! WHERE'S THE LOAD OF JUNK YOU HAD ABOARD?

BACK THERE ON THE JUNK-HEAP, WHERE I ALWAYS DUMP THE STUFF I DON'T WANT.

WORK THIS OUT: — HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE ROGER TO COVER THE HALF-MILE TO THE JUNK-HEAP AT 50 YARDS PER SECOND?

GASP! WHEEZE! THUD! THUD! THUD!

AND HERE'S ANOTHER TEASER FOR ANY WOULD-BE DODGERS: — WHAT TAKES LONGER — MOWING 12 SQUARE YARDS OF LAWN AT 1/2 YARD PER MINUTE, OR SHIFTING ONE TON OF JUNK AT 500 POUNDS PER HOUR?

I'VE GOT TO FIND THAT MOWER! — CROAK! —

— I-IT MUST BE HERE SOMEWHERE! — GURGLE!

MUCH LATER —

MMM! SO, YOU LOST THE LAWN-MOWER, DID YOU? GRR-R-R! AND JUST LOOK AT THE MESS YOU'RE IN!

GASP! WHEEZE! PANT!

GULP!

RIGHT! YOU CAN WORK THIS OUT! THEN AFTERWARDS BEND DOWN, BECAUSE THE ANSWER THAT I GET IS A 5-MINUTE WHACKING AT 6 SWIPES PER SECOND!

ER — DON'T LET THIS PUT YOU OFF, WOULD-BE DODGERS. — GULP! — WE ALL M-MAKE M-MISTAKES!

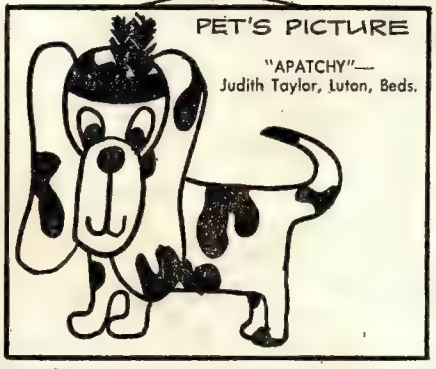
THE BEANO FUNNY FOLK ANSWER LETTERS FROM READERS!



"APATCHY"—
Judith Taylor, Luton, Beds.

Dear Dennis the Menace and Gnasher,
Why does your hair stick up like a hedgehog? I've often wondered, do you use a special shampoo or is it natural? Anyway, best wishes to you both, and do keep being naughty.
Judy Godward,
Leeds,
Yorks.

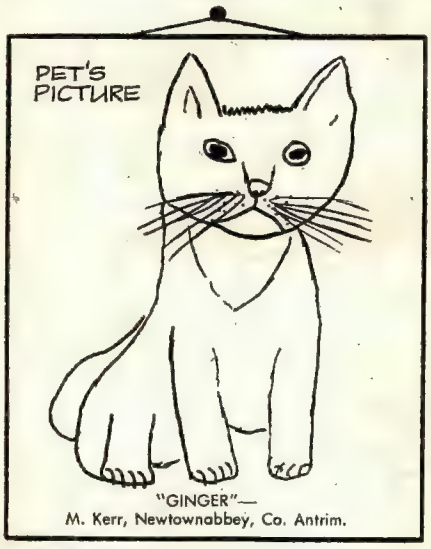
Dear Judy,
Our hair is naturally "stuck-up". And what's more there's not a comb strong enough to do anything about it.
Your pals,
Dennis and Gnasher.

Dear Miss Godward,
Please don't encourage that boy and dog to be naughty. Anyway, they don't need any encouragement.
Sincerely,
Dennis's Dad.

"JERRY"—
Rosemarie McGahey,
Birmingham.

Dear Dennis,
I am one of Gnasher's greatest fans. But every week I try to find out what kind of breed he is. Could you help me?
Yours faithfully,
B. Castell,
Huddersfield,
Yorks.

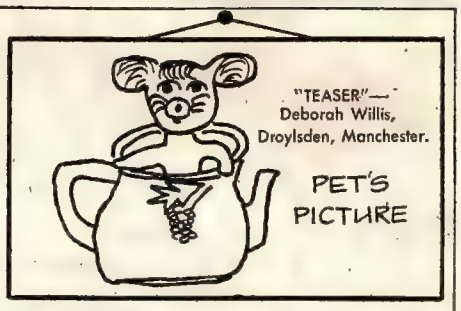
Dear Reader,
Gnasher is what is known as a cross-breed—he gets very cross with Walter's soppy poodle, Foo-Foo.
Yours menacingly,
Dennis.



"GINGER"—
M. Kerr, Newtownabbey, Co. Antrim.

Dear General Jumbo,
I enjoy your new weekly page very much. You must be very proud of your army. If I had them, I would be very happy and proud, too.
John Murray,
Bridge of Don,
Aberdeen.

Calling John,
Glad you like my army. It's hard work looking after them all. Professor Carter is wanting me to test a new model so I'd better sign off.
Your pal,
Jumbo Johnson.



"TEASER"—
Deborah Willis,
Droylsden, Manchester.

Dear Billy Whizz,
I would like to know how you get so much speed up.
Jill Cordell, Norwich.

Dear Jill,
So would my Dad! Then he could follow me on my daily runs, to keep an eye on me!
Yours speedily,
Billy Whizz.

Dear Lord Snooty,
Why is it that you wear a top hat and the others don't?
Sharon Donelan,
Atherton,
Lancs.

Dear Miss Donelan,
Only a person of my nobility and position is permitted to wear a top hat—besides it's a handy place to hide my catapult.
Your pal,
Snooty.

Dear D.J.,
I have to take a few part-time jobs to pay for the damage I cause. It only takes me a few minutes a day to do all the jobs as I'm so speedy.

Yours rushingly,
Billy.

PET'S PICTURE

"FUZZ"—
Linda Hardwick, Diglis, Worcester.

Dear Smiffy,
I hope you are keeping well. What age are you now? Any notion of getting married yet? If so, don't forget to send me a slice of wedding cake!

Yours,
C.O. Driscoll,
Kilkenny,
Eire.

Dear Reader,
The only well I am keeping is an ink-well. I am three years old! (Editor's note:- He's actually nine but he can only count up to three). I asked Toots to marry me but she pranged me with her pea-shooter. I don't think I'll be able to send you a slice of wedding cake as Fatty will probably guzzle the lot.

Your loving dumbell,
Smiffy.

Miss N. Fleming,

Dear Lord Snooty,
Do you and your pals never go to school? Because you are never shown going to school.

Yours,
A. Dargan,
Bolton,
Lancs.

Dear Reader,
We go to school all right, but Aunt Mat's so ashamed of our marks, she keeps our school activities quiet!

Yours graciously,
Lord Snooty.

Dear Dennis the Menace,
Have you ever done anything helpful at school lately?

Yours faithfully,
Ruth Winfield,
Bournemouth,
Dorset.

Dear Ruth,
I was very helpful at school this week. The cooks were complaining that nobody ate the school dinners, so I sent Gnasher into the kitchens and he scoffed the lot!

Yours menacingly,
Dennis.

PET'S PICTURE

"PROTOCERATOP"—
David McEvoy,

Dear Minnie the Minx,
When I read the Beano, I always turn to your page first because you are my favourite character. I love all the naughty things you get up to and sometimes try them myself.

Yours sincerely,
Louise Heard.

Dear Louise,
You are my favourite letter writer. It sounds as if you are a bit of a minx yourself. If I ever start a club for Minxes you will be first on my list.

Keep Minxing,
Minnie.

Dear Baby-face,
I think you are the sweetest character in the Beano and I would like to hear from you if you are stuck in jail again.

Yours sincerely,
Suzanne Green,
Wanstead,
London.

Dear Suzanne,
I certainly was the sweetest person in the "Beano". I pinched all the sweets in Vulture Gulch. Unfortunately "Marsh" Mallow found me by following the trail of toffee wrappers.

Yours sweetly,
"Baby-face".

PET'S PICTURE

"SOOKY"—

Dear Plug,
Why is it you look like you do? Maybe it's your mother's fault. There's nothing I could do anyway. I wonder what you would do with one million pounds? Maybe have your own beauty parlour? Anyway, I would never miss one comic that you are in. You are nuts with your teeth.
Keep in touch,
Nigel Rowley,
Wrexham,

Dear Nigel,
How dare you say I'm ugly! Why, only today 'Erbert was saying how good I looked to him.
Yours handsomely,
Plug.

Dear Nigel,
Plug didn't tell you that I'd lost my specs at the time, and the reason he looked good was because I could hardly see him.
Yours,
'Erbert.

Dear Biffo,
Could you please tell me why you always wear shorts with braces?

Margaret Orr,
Carluke,

Dear Margaret,
I would be too hot if I wore long trousers—you must remember I am a furry bear. I wear braces to keep my shorts up, as they are a bit too big for me.

Biffo the Bear.

PET'S PICTURE

"SPLINTER"—
Derek Plewa, Hornchurch, Essex.

Dear Bears,
I think that you are SOUPER, and would love to MEAT you sometime. You were born and BREAD to claim your STEAK in "The Beano", and you are my favourite story. Teddy Bear is so SWEET; Pa Bear is brave at first but soon turns CHICKEN and Ma Bear is a real PEACH.

Yours forever,

Dear Mary,
We love your scrumptious letter and we only wish you had sent us the MEAT, BREAD and other grub as well.

Yours hungrily,

Yours jokingly,
Sally Johnson,
Braunstone,

Dear Sally,
Do you think you could lend me your pea-shooter as my Dad has confiscated mine? He wouldn't believe I was trying to plant peas in his window-box using my pea-shooter, when he happened to put his head out of the window.

Keep minxing,
Minnie.

Dear Hank,
I think you should have a shave because you look disgraceful.

Love,
Jean Cave,
Worksop,
Notts.

Dear Miss Cave,
I'm so busy keeping those pesky bears out of my store, I don't have time for shaving. Anyway why don't you complain to Pa Bear about HIS face—it's much hairier than mine!

Yours,
Hank (very busy reloading blunderbuss).

Dear Bash Street Kids,
We thought you would like some Batty Books to tell Teacher:– "Swimming The Channel", by Francis Near; "Shut That Door", by Ivor Draught; "Jump Off The Cliff", by Hugo First.

Helen and Vikki Bristow,
New Addington,
Croydon,
Surrey.

Dear Helen and Vikki,
Thanks—we'll tell Teacher right away. As a matter of fact, he keeps a Batty Book in his desk. It's called "The Swishing Cane" by Watty Payne. Ouch!

The B.S. Kids.

Pet's Picture

"SCAMP"—
Jackie Gill, Clifton, Swinton, Lancs.

Dear Ben Nevis,
I am a Scottish lad, too. "The Beano" is my favourite comic.

Niall Robertson,

Dear Niall,
You have good taste, laddie. And talking about taste, don't forget to take your porridge every morning and you'll soon be able to lift a road roller with one hand.

Best wishes from,
Wee Ben,

Pet's Picture

"SINGALONG MAX"—
Sophie Church, Bishop's Stortford, Herts.

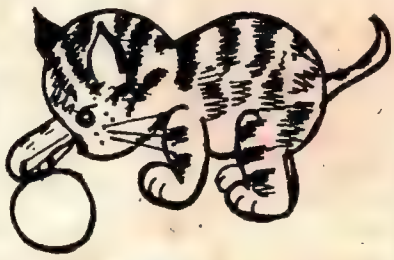
Dear Minnie,
It is an excellent story you have every week. I bet you can't stop causing trouble and be a GOOD girl.

Your friend,
Beverly Richardson,
Pogmoor,
Barnsley,
Yorks.

Dear Bev,
I AM good lots of times—on my birthday and at Christmas. Dad, too, says I'm good—good at getting punished at school, good at teasing Fatty Fudge and good at sleeping-in before exams—in fact, good for nothing! See?

Your friend,
Minnie.

Pet's Picture



"FERGUS"—
Karen Jones, Northmuskham, Newark.

Dear Grandpa,
You remind me of my Uncle Joe. He is 63 and yet he still plays on slides and swings in the park.

Yours sincerely,
Barry Deakin,
Worksop,
Notts.

Dear Barry,
Good for Uncle Joe, but he's only a youngster compared with me. NO—I am NOT saying what my age is.

Yours anciently,
Grandpa.

Would you ask your mum and dad if I could come to tea with you? Because I like to eat as much as you do.
Yours sincerely,
David Cook,
Broughty Ferry,

P.S. I will bring some porridge.

Dear David,
I don't think that would be a wise idea, because, before you had even dipped your spoon in your porridge, Pa and Ma would have eaten it.
Yours apologetically,
Teddy.

Helen Osborne,

Dear Minnie,
Why don't you wear a dress? I think you would look very nice. Just try one and see.
Yours hopefully,

Dear Suzanne,
ME wear a dress? Yeuch! Of all the soppy ideas! . . . Wait a minute, though. That's not a bad scheme. I know just the dress for me—Dad's old army battleDRESS! Oh, boy! Look out everybody—Minnie will soon be on the warpath!
Thanks a lot, pal,

"LIBBY LADYBIRD"—
Sharon Woolley,

Dear Richard the Lion,
Why do you stand on two legs, instead of four?
Yours suspiciously,
Paul Jacobs,

Dear Paul,
I stand on my hind-legs because, besides being King of the Safari Park, I am also its boxing champion. Care for a few rounds?
Wham! Blam!
Right hook Richard.

Dear Lord Snooty,
What is the name of the little fellow with the "?" on his head? And why does he have it?
Yours,
G. Roberts,

Conwy,

Dear G.,
His name is Doubting Thomas. He's never sure about anything—what day it is, if he's had his breakfast, who I am, even what his own name is—of that I'm sure!
Yours helpfully,
Lord Snooty.

"FLASH"—
Simon Crutchley,

Dear Marsh Mallow,
Why do you have such a big star? Why not a little one? Anyway, why do you have it on your hat, not on your shirt like other sheriffs?
Yours,
Andrew Marshall,
Newcastle,
Northumberland.

Dear Andrew,
I wear the said badge on my hat so that everyone may see clearly that I am the famed sheriff of Vulture Gulch. Also, the star is large because I am always the heroic "star" of the story when I capture that slug, Finlayson!
Yours modestly,
"Marsh."

Dear Minnie,

Yours sincerely,
S.A. McDonell,
Hendon,

Dear S.A.,
All my jerseys are knitted by my short-sighted granny, and she keeps making them about two sizes too big. Then, to make things worse, my mum washes the jersey with starch.

P.S. I don't mind—it means I only have to wash half my face.

Sad yuks,

Your tummy-rumbling pals,
The Bears.

PET'S PICTURE

"GEORDIE"—
Anne Robinson, Manchester, Lancs.

Dear Lord Snooty,
I like your page very much in "The Beano". But could you tell me how you came across a pet like Angus?
C. Cook,

Dear C,
Stags in Scotland are lords of the mountains, so Angus's dad sent him to me to learn how to become a lord. Angus didn't mind—there are hardly any apples on Ben Nevis.
Your friend,
Lord Snooty.

Dear Worried Steven,
After your next visit to the barber's, put on a skin-coloured bathing cap and tuck your hair inside. Then watch your mum's face! That's not a "hair" brained idea, is it?
Your faithful dodger,

P.S. Don't you dare do as he says, young man!
Roger's Dad.

Dear Billy,
SSSSH! Don't tell everyone! It's one of my cunning disguises! By the way, have you any cure for corns on the hands?

Dear Pups,
I would like to ask how so many pups can fit into such a little bin. Why don't you get a bigger one?
Yours,
Andrew Steele,
Salford,

Dear Andrew,
We fit into our bin quite well. The only time we have difficulty getting in is when we are fat after a huge feed, but that is hardly ever. Sob!

Dear Plum,
Where did you get your pet hedgehog, Hubert?
Debra Horan,
Hull,

Dear Debra,
Hubert and I became very attached to each other when I sat on um pile of leaves he was sleeping in. Actually, we were so firmly attached that it took two teams of Indian ponies to pull us apart. That was um relief, I can tell you.
Ouchingly,

Charles McPhee, Kirkcaldy, Fife.

Dear Minnie,
Why do you hate wearing girl's clothes and ribbons in your hair?
Yours confused,
Sharon Munford,
Letchworth,
Herts.

Dear Sharon,
A tough guy like me should not be made to wear soppy outfits, but Dad keeps trying to make a lady out of me. I don't mind the ribbons though. As Fatty Fudge knows, they can be used as mud-throwing slings—and he just hates washing his fat face.
Keep smiling,

Dear Lord Snooty,
How would you like to live in a house instead of a castle?
Yours,
Maria Parr,
Kirkby,
Nr. Liverpool.

Dear Maria,
I wouldn't mind living in a house, really, but my castle's quite handy for sporting events in bad weather. There's no need for the Bunkerton Cup Final to be put off if it snows—we just stage it in the banqueting hall. Then, of course, the Kite-flying Championships can still go on inside the clock tower, and our annual Twenty-mile Marathon Race round the corridors.
Sincerely yours,
Lord Snooty.

P.S. Don't tell Aunt Mat about all this—it happens when she's on holiday.

Dear Wilfrid,
I wish you would show the rest of your face. I would like to see it.
Yours hopefully,
Michael Nicholson,
Dalkeith,
Midlothian.

Dear Michael,
I would show the rest of my face, but it is so handsome it would make Plug jealous, and I don't want to do that!
Yours modestly,
Wilfrid.

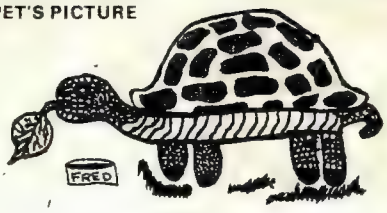
PET'S PICTURE

"BRUNO"—
Janet Barnard,
Wakefield, Yorks.

Dear Minnie,
I like you because you do all the things I would be scared to do.
Yours sincerely,
Jacqueline Wiseman,
Gardenstown,
Banffshire.

Dear Jacqueline,
Well, that's just because I'm brave and strong and . . . Help! No! Scream! Mercy! I don't want to have a bath, Mum! No—Argh! Gurgle!
Yours wetly,
Minnie.

PET'S PICTURE



"FRED"—
Sandra Davies, Winch Wen, Swansea.

Dear Grandpa,
Every time I read about you in "The Beano", your beard always seems to be the same size. Can you tell me why it never seems to grow?
Brian Deakin,
Rochdale,
Lancs.

Dear Brian,
Humph! It does grow. It's just that every-time I go to trim the garden hedge I trim off half my beard as well!
Yours disgustedly,
Grandpa.

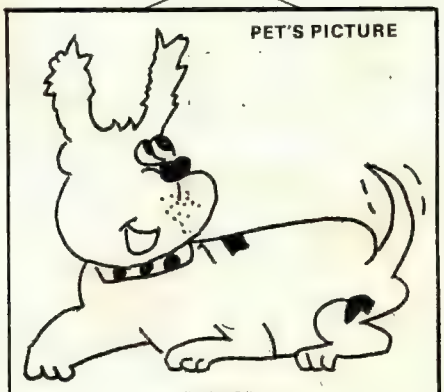
PET'S PICTURE

"RUDOLPH"—
Denise Hartshorn, Chesterfield, Derbyshire.

Dear Minnie,
I am a great fan of yours. I like your beret. Where did you get it from?
Yours,
Corrina Simpson,
Cowley,
Oxford.

Dear Corrina,
Well, there was this French onion seller walking along the street where I live. Somehow I fell out of a tree on the end of a rope and swung over the man's head, quite accidentally taking his beret.
Yours "beret" sincerely,
M. the M.

PET'S PICTURE



"DODO"—
Alan Collins, Walton, Liverpool.

Dear Plug,
Please come over to my farm, for I have a scarecrow that has made friends with the birds. You would make a fine scarecrow—honestly!
Richard Best,
King's Lynn,
Norfolk.

Dear Richard,
I would certainly stop the birds eating the crops, but I'm no scarecrow. Let me explain. With my great beauty, I would probably attract all the birds from miles around, who'd be happy just to sit and gaze at me all day.
Your handsome friend,
Plug.

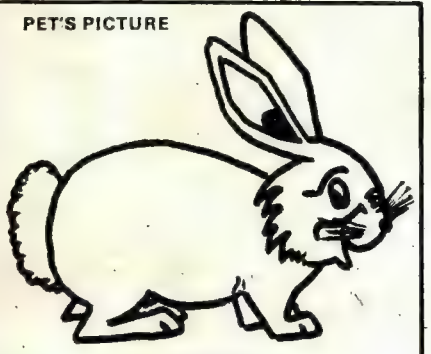
Dear Roger the Dodger,
You know that Billy Whizz always runs, so he must wear his shoes out fast. Why don't you lend him your father's slippers? Then you won't get hammered so much!
Love from,
Christina Mackay,
Isle of Lewis,
Scotland.

Dear Christina,
That sounds a very good idea, but the soles on my dad's spanking slippers are harder than those on a pair of hiking boots! Even Billy couldn't wear them out!
Yours sadly,
Roger the Dodger.

PET'S PICTURE



"WINKY"—
Jim O'hara, Eastwood, Glasgow.

Dear Dennis,
Could you tell me how Gnasher cleans his teeth?
Yours sincerely,
Daniel Osler,
Winchester,
Hants.

Dear Daniel,
Yesh, I mean, yes. Gnasher goes into the local car-wash service and just smiles for five minutes. The last time he came out his teeth were so clean and bright that a policeman told him to "dip not dazzle"!
Yours jokingly,
Dennis.

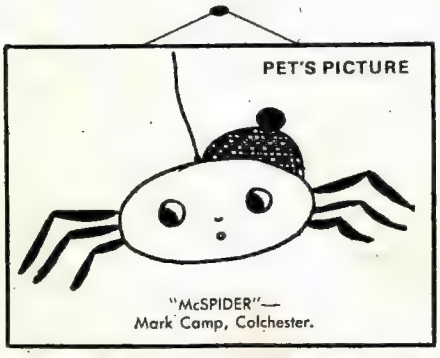
PET'S PICTURE

"SQUEAKY"—
Keith Hawkins, Welling, Kent.

Dear Minnie,
Why don't you start something quiet, like a butterfly collection?
Yours hopefully,
Debbie Green,
Thaxted,
Essex.

Dear Debbie,
I tried that once and all I caught in my net was Fatty Fudge's bag of sweets, a policeman's helmet and the neighbour's cat. I also caught something else rather painfully—my dad's slippers!
Yours groaningly,
Minnie.

PET'S PICTURE



"McSPIDER"—
Mark Camp, Colchester.

Dear Three Bears,
I am very fond of ice-cream, and eat gallons of it every year. What is your favourite food?
Yours hungrily,
Giles C Read,
Bridgeport,

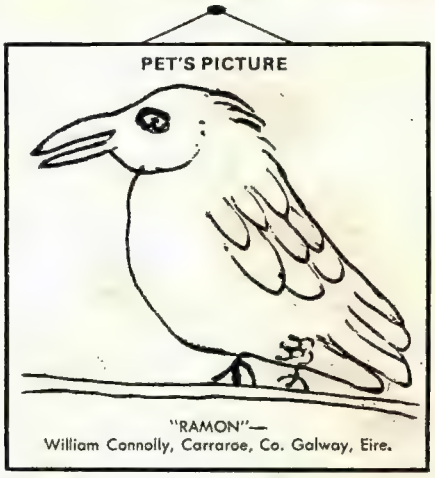
Dear Giles,
Oh, we're extremely fond of steaks, beans, jellies, custard, pumpkin pie. Why am I saying this? We're starving—there's no food in the larder! Groan! But I'll continue—rice, chips, cakes, cheese–CHEESE? I've just remembered we left some in the mousetrap! Ta! Ta!
Yours in extreme haste,
Pa Bear.

PET'S PICTURE



"RAMON"—
William Connolly, Carraroe, Co. Galway, Eire.

Dear Walter,
Why do you wear a bow-tie? You should be like Dennis and not such a softie.
Yours sincerely,
Marguerite Hunter,
Ballymoney,
Co. Antrim.

Dear Marguerite,
I wear a bow-tie because my mummy tells me to. And I'm not really such a softie, because my bow-tie is held on with elastic, and I sometimes use that as a catapult.
Gentle giggles,
Walter.

Dear Minnie,
I think you sound very musical. Please tell me why you don't play an instrument.
George Gorman,
Lochee,
Dundee.

Dear George,
I used to play a musical instrument, in fact, a tuba. It was handy for hiding all my weapons in. Tee-hee! But Dad didn't like that, so I took up the drums. However, they made such a noise that I was told to go and practise outside, until the din cracked the greenhouse windows and Dad's prize marrows. That was when Dad decided to use the drum sticks for whacking purposes! Groan! So I gave up music!
Yours unmusically,
Minnie.

"TODDLES"—
Marindo Platt, Nr. Whitchurch, Shropshire.

Dear Dennis the Menace.

We have a little cat called Duchess, and one day I brought my "Beano" to her and showed her your page. The moment she saw Gnasher she raced outside and zoomed up the nearest tree. I think she thought your dog was going to jump out of the comic, but that doesn't stop me getting "The Beano".

Rosemary Hawley,
Cranleigh
Surrey

Dear Rosemary.

Duchess has nothing to be ashamed of. Why, the last time Picadilly's Circus was in town, the performing lions refused to leave their cage till Gnasher was safely locked up in his kennel. The lion-tamer, that brave performer, could not persuade the great cats to come out—he was hiding in the cage with them

Dear Little Plum,
Why is your nose white when the rest of your face is pink?
Yours wonderingly,
Elizabeth Robertson,
Grangemouth,
Stirlingshire.

Dear Elizabeth,
Why did you have to mention um nose? It used to be pink until um first time I saw Plug of um "Bash Street Kids". I got such um fright I went white, and um nose never recovered!
Yours um huffily,
Little Plum.

Dear Lord Snooty,
I've just had a great idea to scare away the Gasworks Gang. When they come to attack you, why don't you wear ugly masks? That will scare them away!
David Jones,
Holyhead,
Anglesey.

Dear David,
Er—we've tried that ugly mask idea already, but the Gasworks Gang thought we were relatives of theirs and invited us to tea in their hut. Eating that awful meal was worse than a bashing, I can tell you!
Thanks all the same.
Your noble pal,
Lord Snooty.

Dianne Price,

Dear Dianne,
You bend your knees, grasp the side of the bath, straighten up, then step out! Heh! Heh! It's easy to get out of a bath—the important thing is not to get IN!

P.S. Sorry, Dianne—that silly boy seems to have dodged out of answering your question.

Dear Roger's Dad,
How many pairs of slippers do you use each year? It must cost you a lot. Why don't you take it out of Roger's pocket money?
Lynn Murphy,

Merseyside.

Dear Miss Murphy,
Sometimes I use—or should I say Roger wears out—one pair of slippers a week. Of course, his pocket-money won't cover that—so I borrow Dennis's Granny's "Demon Whacker" slipper. It NEVER wears out—although Roger feels worn out afterwards!
Yours sincerely,

Dear Andrew,
I made friends with Joe when one of my dodges backfired (that's very rarely), and Dad was after me. I disguised myself as a scarecrow, but it didn't fool Joe, who sat on my shoulder. To stop myself getting bored, I made friends with Joe. The scarecrow didn't fool Dad either! Groan!

Dear Lord Snooty,
How do you know who is Snitch and who is Snatch?

Katherine Gillott,
Rotherham,
Yorkshire.

Dear Katherine,
It's very easy to tell the difference. Snitch is the one who won't eat his porridge in the morning, but eats my bacon and eggs as well as his own to make up for it, and likes to drop a few spoonfuls of marmalade in Scrapper's tea. Snatch is the one who gobbles Snitch's porridge as well as his own, usually puts a bar of soap in Fat Joe's bacon sandwich, and allows his pet frog to swim in the milk. Do I make myself clear?

Yours truly,
Lord Snooty.

P.S. NO, you don't. Snitch has a white cap and Snatch a dark one—that's what you should have mentioned.

"JENNEY"—
Barrie Lynn, Fakenham, Norfolk.

Dear Three Bears,
Why don't you pinch one melon and save the seeds, then grow your own melons?
Anthony Ashworth,
Epsom Downs,
Surrey.

Dear Anthony,
On that question, I have a "melon-choly tale to tell. Recently we raided Hank's melon patch, charged home and scoffed the lot. If we hadn't been so hungry, we wouldn't have gobbled the seeds as well. Sob! Sob!
Yours very hungrily,
Pa Bear.

"PADDY"—
Ann Gillespie, Stockport, Cheshire.

Dear Prof. Egwell Fryde,
Have you ever thought of buying a new mortar-board that will fit you?
Christopher Poil,
Emsworth,
Hants.

Dear Christopher,
My mortar-board is the largest size of STEEL mortar-board I can get. I've GOT to wear it to protect my intelligent head from nasty accidents when that kilted menace, Nevis, is about.
Yours worriedly,
Professor Egwell Fryde.

"GULLIVER"—
Bradley Davis, Brightlingsea, Essex.

As you have not got a sister you will not know what it is like to have one. Every day she plays tricks on me. Will you please tell me how to trick this little horror?
John Douglas,
Cramlington,
Northumberland.

Dear John,
I may not have a sister, but my favourite enemy is that female toad, Winnie the Wangler, so I know all about girlish tricks. I'll tell you how to deal with your problem sister. You must

Dear Teacher (Bash Street Kids),
Do you ever break canes whacking the Kids?
Stephen Hunnybun,
Groby,
Leicestershire.

Dear Stephen,
Yes, I do break a cane occasionally—but only when the victim—er—I mean, pupil—has put a "Beano Book" down the back of his trousers. I don't mind losing the cane, because I gain a confiscated "Beano Book". Reading that wonderful book takes my mind of these unspeakable urchins for a bit.

Stephen Summersgill,

Dear Stephen,
Simply go to the baker's for meat, the butcher's for bread, the grocer's for fish and the fish-shop for jam. You should come home with nothing! Then your Mum will have second thoughts about sending you to the shops.
Yours dodgingly,

Manuela S. Baldwin, B.F.P.O. 6, Portugal.

Dear "Baby-Face",
I hope I am not being rude, but will you ever grow up?
James McDavitt,
Coatbridge,

Dear James,
I AM grown up! I just look youthful because of my sweet, innocent, childish features. Anyway, dear old "Marsh" Mallow wouldn't like me to grow any bigger. I'm as tall as he is, so why don't you pick on him?
Yuk! Yuk!

Nicola Trow,

Dear Nicola,
No, I do not object to your asking. It says in the "Book For Bandits" that the best bandits must do at least one bad deed a day. Unfortunately, there is another volume called the "Manual for Marshals", which my best enemy "Marsh" Mallow has. It says that the sheriff must catch at least one bandit a day. Dear Gnasher,
Have you ever been to Cruft's Dog Show with Dennis?
Matthew Abraham,
Bishop's Stortford,
Herts.

Dear Matthew,
No, Gnasher has never been to Cruft's, but he went to Walter's Dog Show and had a nail-biting victory. Walter did all the nail-biting, because, if he didn't let Gnasher win, I would have bashed him!
Yours menacingly (on behalf of Gnasher),
Dennis.

Dear Bash Street Kids,
I have an idea for you. Why don't you take Teacher's glasses and hide them? Then he will not be able to cane you if he cannot see.
David Upton,
Hastings,
Sussex.

Dear David,
Thank you for your idea. We tried it before, but we sent Smiffy to pinch the glasses and he came back with the glasses Teacher drinks his milk out of. What was even worse, we all got caned for that! Groan!
Yours painfully,
The Bash Street Kids.

Dear Bash Street Kids,
Why don't you be very good in school and get into Teacher's good books?
Loveday Tinsley,
Bray,
Co. Wicklow,
Ireland.

Dear Loveday,
What good books does Teacher have? Huh! He's only got sum books, history books and geography books. We wouldn't call THEM good. The only good books we like to be in are "Beano Books". Got your copy yet, pal?

Deborah Hanks, Birmingham.

Dear Professor Egwell Fryde,
How do you pay for all the damages that Wee Ben Nevis has done?
David Pounds,
Walsall.

Dear David,
No problem. We hire Nevis out to the local garage—they employ him as a lifting jack for double-decker buses. His wages pay for school damages—as long as he doesn't damage the buses!
Yours truly,
E. Fryde, M.A., B.A., A.S.S.

Dear Biffo,
What football team do you support?
Prabaharan Vairavarmoorthy,

Dear Praba,
Er—well you could say I support the "Beano" office football team. I've got to, in order to keep an eye on the football they play with—it belongs to me!
Your furry friend,
Biffo.

Dear Billy Whizz,
Have you ever started out for your everyday run and met yourself coming home again?
Linda Freeman,
Aughrim,

Dear Linda,
No, I haven't done that yet, but I did run so fast that I left my shadow behind. It arrived home at two in the morning and Dad had to get up and let it into the house.
Funfully yours,
B. Whizz.

Dear Teacher (Bash Street Kids),
Why don't you go into the gym with the kids and teach them something graceful? The best thing I thought up was ballet. How about it?

Michael Dinsdale,
Chipping Norton,
Oxfordshire.

P.S. Send Smiffy to a special school where he can learn something.

Dear Michael,
Good gracious me, no! If they become graceful and agile they would be able to dodge my swishing cane! And that would never do!
Yours in alarm,
Teacher.

P.S. There is no school in the world where Smiffy can learn anything!

Dear Rosemary,
What a clever person you are! I think I'm cute, too.

Your very best friend,
Pug.

Dear R,
Could it be that you are plumpish, too? If so, don't worry. We portly people—and pups—are always full of fun. Nothing upsets us. SNARL! Which of you pups pinched my bowl of dog-meat? If I catch the rotten beast, I'll roll on him till he's flatter than a penny piece!

Yours—ahem!—kindly,
Tubby.

Dear Minnie the Minx,
I have always wanted to know why you pinch Fatty's sweets. Why can't you buy your own?

Ellen Alone,

Dear Ellen,
That's obvious—I've never any cash because Dad has nearly stopped my pocket money for life! As for pinching Fatty's sweets, I'm only being kind and putting him on a diet.

Yours minxingly,
Minnie.

Dear Billy Whizz,
I would like to know what your favourite sports are.

Christopher Foster,
Ramsgate,
Kent.

Dear Christopher,
My favourite sport is cross-country running—by "country" I mean Great Britain, of course. The sports I dislike most are the three-legged race (my partner is always too slow), and the slow cycle race (that's just impossible)!

Yours speedily,
Billy Whizz.

Dear Roger,
Please will you tell me if you have ever dodged anything without getting spanked?

Karen Firth,

Dear Karen,
I certainly have. Instead of spanking me, Dad sometimes stops my pocket-money. Unfortunately, when I try a dodge to get my pocket-money back I get spanked. You can't win at this dodging business!

Yours, unable to sit,
Rodger.

Anyway, it would be easier to tell you what food I don't like, which—er—er—sorry—can't think of anything, and can't stop to write any more—slurp! There's half a ton of doughnuts which needs my attention.
